

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

The use of a cellular development inhibitor in a controlled manner in order to maintain an undifferentiated stem cell state, especially one of human stem cells, whereby cell division is permitted.